

Nichole Davis Scholarship

Nichole went through life with the daily challenge of Cystic Fibrosis, but was always able to wear a smile on her face. Before she died in September of 2007, she impacted many people in a positive way through her appreciation for life. Everyone who met her felt blessed. This scholarship is in honor of Nichole and her belief that "her dreams were endless because her wings could take her anywhere." This scholarship will help you continue her dream.

There will be two scholarships offered, one for a Lisbon Central School senior, and one for a Northern New York senior. Please complete the application and send it to: Becky Buckingham, 1835 CR 28, Lisbon, NY 13658. The application must be postmarked by April 3rdth 2026 and the successful recipients will be awarded the scholarship at graduation. The Counseling Office can help you mail this scholarship.
