

Wilson Bickford Stay Creative and Keep Painting Scholarship Fund

In memory of Wilson Bickford, his wife and daughter have created a Charitable Trust Fund. This fund is designed to help to further art education.

Wilson was passionate about sharing his love of art with others. We want that passion to continue now through others in his memory.

Wilson passed away on Dec.18, 2021 leaving a lasting imprint in the art community. We can still learn from him through his many online lessons.

A qualified applicant will receive a one- time $500.00 scholarship to continue and further art education. Please see the attached application and scholarship requirements to apply.

Wilson was a self-taught artist from Northern New York. He was a well-known art instructor, teaching many classes across NY, Vermont and Virginia. He worked in watercolor, acrylic, and pen and ink. However, his medium of choice was oils. He also authored a book titled "Wildlife Landscapes You Can Paint" using just 5 colors.

In 2013 he debuted his WPBS series "Painting With Wilson Bickford". He filmed 8 seasons of the show. Wilson's motto was that "Anyone Can Paint" it just takes practice. Wilson was loved by all his students for his laid-back teaching style, easy going personality and jokes!
